TEA PAIRING $75

In addition to our wine pairings, we are pleased to offer a curated flight of rare, artisanal teas to compliment the flavors of the menu.

2017 LISHAN WINTER SPROUT-served chilled
taiwan

There are several names for this tea. The tea maker calls it huang jin cha, or “gold tea.” We prefer the more poetic bu zhi chun, meaning “never know spring.” The unusual name refers to the pre-spring harvest of this tea, after the leaves had matured slowly through the winter months. When this tea was picked, snow blanketed the 2000m tea garden. Vibrant, neon-green color with notes of olive oil, meyer lemon, and wheatgrass.

2015 RED WATER TIEGUANYIN-served chilled
taiwan

The Tieguanyin cultivar can be traced back to 19th century when settlers from Fujian arrived in Taiwan, bringing the cultivar with them. The “red water” in this tea’s name refers to the darker color of the tea liquor, a result of traditional crafting techniques that take both time and skill to perfect. The resulting tea is mid-oxidized to intensify the cultivar’s unique fruit and floral notes. Distinct notes of ripe stone fruit and citrus peel alongside sugary depth.

2012 OLD TREE SHUIXIAN
china

Crafted from a century old grove within Wuyishan’s Scenic Reserve, Old Tree Shuixian is a true yancha oolong with all the complexity, sweetness, and minerality that only its provenance can produce. The source trees boast massive root systems, robust trunks, and towering stature at nearly 10 feet tall. Layers of complexity and richness, reveling notes of caramel and spice.

1994 FORMOSA YANCHA
taiwan

Set aside for long term aging in large wood-fired storage urns, then made available after two decades’ results in a tea with unparalleled complexity. The craftsmanship and aging creates a tea of incomparable deliciousness. The aged caramelization delivers an incredible sweetness with distinct toffee notes.

1986 AGED TIEGUANYIN
china

The southern Fujian Province is a historic growing area for Chinese tea, most famously, tieguanyin (or “Iron Goddess of Mercy”) teas are produced here. Highly aromatic with notes of walnuts and dried fruits balanced by a crisp finish but with an added complexity and depth developed during the aging process.
